CARRIERS' ADDRESS.

To the Patrons of the Roundabout.

Dreams of good men oft appear,
Gleams of Heaven's drawing near;
Far away from golden sky,
Star beams frequent pass them by;
Shining with a holy light,
Lining clouds of darkest night,
Brings a hope and peace divine,
Clings like some sustaining vine;
Ever through life's dreary way,
Never fading night or day.

He is a Christian true, indeed,
Free, free from avarice and greed;
Lives to the friendless and the poor,
Lives not alone for his own store;
Grows on all a friendly smile;
Bestows in grace and love the while;
He notes the troubles of mankind,
Devotes his life their woes to find,
Then lends them aid as best he can,
When troubles grind his fellow-man.
So lives that at his parting breath
No terrors mingle with his death.

True gentlemen are only those
Who feel respect for other's woes;
Will always lend a helping hand,
Till those who reel more firmly stand;
Speaks to a brother in distress,
Seeks how he may both help and bless.
Cheap is the price of pleasure here;
Keep that in mind and never fear.
This is a lasting truth, indeed:
Bliss comes with every noble deed.
Who lives for others here below
True happiness will ever know.
He may be humble—poor his lot—
The man will never be forgot.
Each man owns a wondrous treasure;
Teach this doctrine with true measure:
Above all other things we prize
Love to our fellow-men is wise.
Banks are with his funds oppressed;
Thanks of those whom he has blest.
Bled his cottage, bare and cold,
Clad in garments worn and old;
At the last his end will be
That which all should like to see.

Who has lived alone for self
You will see laid on the shelf;
When life's journey has an end
Then no one will be his friend.
Gold may have its little day—
Bolt its transitory away—
Yet the owner will, at last,
Get rewards for his life past;
Blind is he to every fact,
Finds the truth when 'tis too late.
Sad the words of tongue and pen,
Bad to know it might have been.
Years have come and years have fled;
Tears of trouble oft have shed;
Few have heeded those who cry
You and I have heard arise.
Will we list the coming year?
Still those walls are coming near—
Feed the hungry, clothe the poor!
Need we ask for pleasure more?

Pure, Peasant,

And highly effective. These are qualities possessed by the new medicine—Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the great Blood Purifier and Nerve Tonic. It has no equal as an alternative, acting directly upon the liver and kidneys and upon the nerve centres, restoring the entire system to a healthy action, giving brightness to the eyes, inducing sweet refreshing sleep and making it a pleasure to live in the enjoyment of perfect health. This finest of all remedies is for sale at 50 cents per package at South Side drug store.

P. H. CARPENTER.

Educational.

Owing to sickness we have been unable to visit several of the schools of the county, but hope to do better next time.

It does us good to see the great improvement in the schools in the county this year, there is larger attendance and more interest manifested than ever before. Let the good work go on.

The Teachers Association is growing in numbers and interest at each successive meeting. The stay at home teachers will soon find themselves left out in the cold, and will then wonder what struck them. We can tell them now it was public sentiment. The people will employ only those who take an interest in their work.

We do not employ lawyers to give medicine nor doctors to expound the law, we want live, good head teachers in our schools and will have them.

The meeting of the association held in the Walcutt school house on the 20th, was a decided success in every particular. The discussions were interesting and instructive, the programme being carried out in full. The good people of the district responded bountifully, and the dinner set before the teachers and their friends was second to none they have heretofore partaken of.

The children had decorated their school house beautifully, but imagine their feelings next morning when on entering the house they found that some wreath had broken into the house and destroyed all their hard labor.

Such conduct would disgrace a heathen or an Indian, but for one in a civilized community, words fail us to express our contempt for the act.

The next meeting of the association will be held in Frankfort, on Saturday, January the 17th, 1891. We hope to have a large attendance of teachers and friends.

The following is the programme.

Opening exercises.
Reading—Mrs. Julia L. Williams and T. A. Brommell.

SONG.
Physiology Miss Lou B. Cromwell, assisted by one of our city physicians.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

From Midway, Ky.

Mrs. Rena Camball, from Midway, states that for the last ten years she has suffered intensely with sick headache at times and has been entirely cured by Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. It cures headache in a few minutes. Mrs. Camball says she would not be without it if it cost ten dollars per box. Jas. Ritter, of Midway, states that for three months he had suffered from a severe pain in his breast and was entirely relieved from it by Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. It is the great pain and skin cure. 50 cents a box at South Side drug store.

Big Eddy.

Snow and sleet has been all the go for the past week.
Quite a dull Christmas on account of snow and sleet.

The old river is on a boom. The mountain boys will soon visit the Eddy.
Preaching the first Sunday in January at Shiloh.

Preaching at the Walcutt School House, on the Glen's creek pike, the second Sunday in January, at 11 a. m., and also at 6:30 o'clock p. m. All are invited.

Miss Etta Moberly has returned home from a visit at Shiloh. She seems to like it very much. She thinks she will go again soon.

Miss Nora LeCompte, of Jett, is visiting Miss Etta Moberly this week, and seems very much taken with the beautiful Eddy.

Miss Eloise Trumbo is visiting friends and relatives this week at Jett.

Little Lucian Warford, while out hunting this week, happened to the misfortune to shoot his finger off. The wound was dressed by Dr. E. E. Hume.

We are expecting Mrs. M. F. Wood home soon.

God be with you till we meet again.
RIP AND RUMPUS.

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS OF DEATH.

Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidences of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Purifier has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee.

Among the Colored Citizens.

A new Colored Publishing Company has been started in Lexington. Why can't we have one in our city?

The new year finds us in the same old ruts. We have made but little, if any, progress during the past year. Instead of new business firms springing up many have gone down; instead of accumulating wealth we increase poverty; and our young men, when they have secured an education, instead of setting to work to use it, join the loafing crowd. When future generations hunt for our progress in the history of time it will not be found.

Prof. W. H. Mayo has been in Ohio this week.

The City School will be re-opened Monday next.

A new firm has been started—Clark & Co., fur dealers. They have not yet been established in permanent quarters, but will be some time during the present month.

Mrs. Jeff Burns, of Lexington, who has been on a visit to her mother in this city for the past two weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. Chas Johnson will soon remove from Cincinnati to this city to reside.

The Rev. Mr. Credit had one of the largest congregations at his church Sunday night that has been out for many months. He is certainly the man the good people of the First Independent have been looking for.

A party of our people paid Covington a visit last week. Among those who went were Misses S. Walker and J. Turner and Messrs E. B. Turner, W. Gaines, Ed. Conly and G. Washington. They report having had a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Settles, of Bagdad, who had been visiting Mrs. J. Cook, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Eddie Edwards, of Louisville, was in the city recently.

Mr. Armer Blackburn is the happiest man in town. It was a girl and weighed eight pounds. Ask him about it.

Mr. L. T. Clark attended the Odd Fellows entertainment at Stamping Ground Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. Hale's Household Ointment.

Is the finest cure in the world. It absolutely cures catarrh. It cures neuralgia and rheumatism. Cures Piles like magic. Cures Salt Rheum in the most soothing manner. Cures Inflamed and Granulated Eyelids. Cures Coughs and Colds. Can be taken internally. Cuts, bruises, burns, chilblains, sores of long standing, corns and bunions are cured quickly; different from all else; superior to all else; it has no equal; 25 and 50c boxes; large size cheapest. Sold at Phil. Carpenter's drug store, South Side.

DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH PILLS

Are active and pure. For sick headache, disordered stomach, loss of appetite, bad complexion and biliousness, they have never been equalled, either in America or abroad.

J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

THAT HACKING COUGH can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Sitting Bull's Wives.

Sitting Bull had three wives, two of whom survive him. The name of one of them is The-One-That-Had-Four-Robes. The other seems to have distinguished herself by doing more than a wife's share toward keeping the name of the Bull family upon the Sioux census roll, and is called The-One-That-Had-Twelve-Two.

Baker's Famous Headache Specific cures where other medicines fail. It is the best one trial will convince you. Sold by Wickliffe Chapman, 314 Main street.

One More Chance.

We have been too busy to revise our subscription list this week, and delinquents have one more chance. All who remain in arrears next Friday will be dropped.

Handsomely Entertained.

The Frankfort Euchre Club was entertained in handsome style by Miss Effie Hill, at the residence of her father, on west Main street, Thursday evening.

Next Friday.

That popular gentleman, Dr. W. I. Kelly, will make his next regular visit to this city on Friday, the 9th inst. All his patients should govern themselves accordingly.

Saw-logs Accumulating.

A number of rafts of saw logs have already arrived from the headwaters of the Kentucky, and more are on the way. The mountain boys are becoming numerous on our streets.

Their First Hop.

The initial hop given by the German Benevolent Society of this city, at the Capital Hotel on Wednesday evening, was largely attended and such a pronounced success as to greatly encourage the Society. Should they conclude to give another in the near future they can feel assured of a much larger attendance.

Altogether Wrong.

An account of the Midway fire on Wednesday was telegraphed to the Courier-Journal, presumably from Midway, in which the correspondent says: "Appeals for help were made to the chief of the fire departments of both Lexington and Frankfort, but were ignored by both cities."

The party who sent the dispatch must certainly have been drunk or not in the place at all. Frankfort did respond as promptly as possible, but Lexington did not, though it was not the fault of the chief of her fire department.

Piano Tuner.

Mr. Chas. Vaupel, piano tuner and repairer, will be in the city January 5th. First class work guaranteed. Please leave orders at Averill's drug store.

FIRE AT MIDWAY.

Lexington Fails to Respond to a Call For Aid.

BUT FRANKFORT GETS THERE JUST THE SAME.

About half-past four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon a telegram was received by Fire Chief Ferguson from Mr. R. S. Starks, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Town of Midway, stating that the town was burning and calling for help. As quickly as possible the steam engine, a reel filled with hose and six men were gotten ready, loaded upon a flat-car, which was attached to the east bound C. & O. train, and sent to the relief of our stricken neighbors. When the train reached there the fire had been in progress an hour or two and had done great damage, but the car containing the engine was speedily backed up to the L. & N. water tank, the hose reel unloaded, water was thrown upon the flames in a very few minutes, and the fire was soon under control.

The fire originated in Collin's Hall and spread rapidly, until five buildings in the main business block of the town were destroyed. Following are the losses by the fire:

Forman & Parish, grocers; loss, $1,500; fully insured.

Collins & Thompson, dry goods; loss, $10,000; well insured, $2,500 of which is with the Liverpool, L. & Globe.

Collins & Head, drugs; loss, $9,000; insurance, $5,500; T. C. Collins owned the block, which was the finest in the town. He had $13,000 insurance on it.

J. D. Hopkins & Co., hardware, stoves, etc., were damaged $4,500 by water; no insurance.

Starks & Co., drugs; damage, $2,500; fully insured.

The total loss is estimated by well posted men to be fully $50,000.

Messrs. Godson and Williams, of the Midway Clipper, whose office is in close proximity to the burned buildings, were damaged to the amount of $250.

When the fire first broke out a telegram was sent to the Chief of the Lexington Fire Department, asking that an engine be sent to their assistance, but the Lord Mayor of the "Blue Grass Capital" was out of humor, and refused to let any portion of the department go until it was too late to be of service, when a dispatch was received from Midway saying they were not needed. Lexington should be proud of so heartless a Chief Magistrate. Frankfort, ever ready to listen to the cry of distress, answered promptly, "We are coming," got there as quickly as possible, and did good service.

New Year's Party.

Miss Bettie Keenon, daughter of Mr. U. Keenon, gave one of the largest and most delightful parties ever given in this city, Wednesday night, there being about forty couples present. Dancing was the order until 10 o'clock when a most sumptuous repast was served. After the new year had arrived the party broke up. Miss Keenon makes a charming hostess.

Married.

HOUSE-HUN- at the residence of Mr. Mitchell, in this city, Wednesday, December 23, 1891, Rev. John Burditt, Mr. Barton House and Miss Bettie Haun.

Recommended as the Best.

LOUISIANA, FRANKFORT, CO., La., May, 1890. I have used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic for several years, for which I used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic, and can recommend same as the best medicine for nerve troubles.

St. Francis Wis. Oct 24, 1888. A member of our congregation used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic with good results. The patient was so nervous that he could not find sleep for weeks. He suffered from the most intense anxiety and was ordered to discontinue the use of the medicine. I gave the person some of Koening's Nerve Tonic and he continued to use it. The anxiety returned gradually, the anxiety disappeared the headache left, and to day the sufferer, who had almost despaired, is enjoying excellent health.

Our pamphlet for sufferers of nervous disease will be sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge from us. This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koening, of Fort Wayne, Ind., for the past ten years, and is now prepared under his direction by the

De foe.

Happy new year to all.

Erasmus Black died very unexpectedly, at his home, last Monday morning. He had been ill in health for three years. After going to bed last Saturday he was taken with a spasm, and was speechless until death. Mr. Black leaves a large family to mourn his loss. They have the sympathy of the neighbors.

The Farmers' Alliance are on a boom in our town—a membership of seventy-one. Our county union meets 2d Tuesday in January at Bersa Church, Henry county.

W. H. Moore, of De foe, Ky., visited his brother, Owen Moore, at Zilpah, during Christmas holidays.

Miss Edmie Moore, of Jacksonville, is visiting her uncle, W. H. Moore, this place.

The Xmas tree on Monday night, at this place, was quite a success.

Miss Sallie F. Claxon, of Monterey, Ky., was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Jesse Monday night.

Mr. Geo. E. Claxton, of Waco, Texas, is visiting his father, Spencer Claxton, of this place.

J. W. Gayle, druggist, desires to inform the public, that he is agent for the most successful preparation that has yet been produced for coughs, colds, and croup. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. The article referred to is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a medicine that has won fame and popularity on it's merits and one that can always be depended upon. It is the only known remedy that will prevent croup. It must be tried to be appreciated. It is put up in 50 cent and $1 bottles. 17-lm.

Fairview.

Oh! what a tangled web we weave,
When first we practice to deceive.—W. Scott.
The prayer meeting was held again last night at the school-house, and the young people offered thanks to the great God for His guidance through the past year, and sang praises to His name.

The school at this place closed Tuesday, the 23d, and commenced again Monday, the 20th. The pupils came back after enjoying the holidays, and went to work with more vim than ever before.

The Christmas tree, one of the most enjoyable of the holiday season, was erected in the school-house Christmas eve, by the tree committee. Christmas afternoon the committee on reception of presents came laden with presents for pupils and friends. In a few hours the tree was beautifully arranged. In connection with the tree was a short entertainment, which made the evening more enjoyable. The little folks did well, and their teacher and parents are proud of their efforts. After the entertainment Santa Claus came in and distributed the presents, which numbered about five hundred.

Our school was visited last Monday by Messrs. M. M. Parrent, of Frankfort, and Rodman Russell, of Bridgeport.

Mr. Robt. A. Hancock visited his brother, George, during Christmas.

Miss Bettie Riddle visited friends in this section during Christmas.

Newell Thompson was the guest of Annie Riner Wednesday night.

Little Minnie Smith, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Lost—A black shepherd dog with a slit in the left ear. Any one finding such a dog will please return him to Mr. John H. Hartman and receive reward. The dog's name is Bob.

William Dorton, of Flat Creek, is visiting his father, Mr. F. L. Dorton, this week.

Robert Riner made a visit to Flat Creek Christmas.

Mr. George Gordon and family moved from this vicinity this week. Mr. Gordon was a good citizen and will be greatly missed by the many friends he leaves here.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC!

Having determined to add several new features to our Implement, Harness and Baggy Departments, and to carry a much larger and varied stock than heretofore, which, when run to its full capacity, will require all of our attention. We have therefore concluded to retire from the grocery business, and we are offering our stock of groceries to the public. We desire to say that everything offered will be sold at cost, and nothing will be reserved.

Before retiring from the grocery business, we desire to extend our thanks to the public for their patronage in the past, and trust we may have a continuance of same in our other departments in the future.

Very respectfully,
O. R. Crutcher & Co.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Masonic Lodges.

We were in error when we stated in our last issue that there would be no election of officers held on Saturday night last, December 27th, by the Masonic Lodges of this city, owing to the fact that they will soon be consolidated. The by-laws required that an election should be held on that day, so the following officers were selected to serve until next Wednesday evening, January 7th, at which time Grand Master Chas. H. Fisk, of Covington, will be here and preside at the meeting, and Hiram Lodge No. 4, and Esoteric, No. 532, will unite under the name of Frankfort Lodge, No. 4.

HIRAM LODGE, NO. 4.

Gus. Schaefer, Master.
Henry C. Murray, Senior Warden.
J. B. Utterback, Junior Warden.
W. T. Reading, Treasurer.
John W. Payne, Secretary.
Geo. A. Lewis, Senior Deacon.
Samuel H. Baker, Junior Deacon.
A. B. Waggoner, Steward and Tyler.

ESOTERIC LODGE, NO. 532.

J. B. Hendrick, Master.
Chas. M. Bridgeford, Senior Warden.
Russell Sneed, Junior Warden.
J. W. Pruett, Treasurer.
B. T. Farmer, Secretary.
U. Keenon, Senior Deacon.
Wm. Cromwell, Junior Deacon.
E. E. Kershaw, Steward and Tyler.

Death of Mrs. Craft.

Mrs. F. L. Craft, wife of the ticket agent of the L. & N. Railroad Co., in this city, died Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of her mother in Shamping Ground. She leaves a little babe but two weeks old and a little boy and girl to the care of a fond and devoted father. A day or two after the birth of her babe the news was received that, by the death of an uncle in Texas, she had fallen heir to considerable property, which so excited her, in her then weak condition, that she grew steadily worse until the Master called her home. She was a most excellent lady, a consistent member of the Christian Church, and the sorrowing friends have the sweet consolation of knowing she fell asleep upon the Savior's breast. The stricken husband, little children and aged mother have the sympathy of many friends in their great affliction.

Ways-Jones.

Mr. Merritt R. Ways, formerly of this city but now of Georgetown, and Miss Marcia Jones, of Georgetown, were married at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati on Tuesday, December 22d. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Johnson Myers, of the Ninth Street Baptist Church in that city. Mr. Ways and bride returned to Georgetown on Christmas day, where an elegant dinner awaited them at the home of the groom, prepared by his daughter, Miss Maud Ways. The many friends of Mr. Ways in this city extend the compliments of the season, and the wish that Mr. Ways and bride may enjoy many years of happiness and prosperity.

Cars Running.

The street cars commenced running regularly last Monday upon Georgetown's new street railroad, though the first trip over the line was made on Christmas eve. We are not so far behind, for we will have an electric street railroad in the spring. We understand that everything has been arranged and we will certainly have the road, but when is not definitely settled. We are needing it now, at least those of us who live on the South Side, worse than a fellow needs a pistol in Texas.

Very Fortunate.

Our little city was very fortunate in escaping the great damage from the recent heavy sleet and snow which visited some of our sister cities. But few trees, telephone and fire alarm wires were injured here, while in Lexington the telephone and fire alarm systems were rendered almost useless. There has been no time within the last two weeks that an alarm of fire could not have been sent in from almost any box in the city.

Out of the Race.

Mr. W. S. Dehoney has withdrawn from the race for School Trustee in the Second Ward, his business engagements being such that he could not give the office proper attention if elected.

Hon. Tom Varnon Dead.

Hon. Thomas W. Varnon, county judge of Lincoln county, died suddenly at his home in Stanford last week, of heart disease. Many of our older citizens remember him as the genial clever gentleman who represented the Lincoln district in the Senate back in the 60's.

Extension Granted.

The County Court of Bourbon county, on Saturday, extended the time in which the Kentucky Midland Railway Co. is to complete the road from Paris to the Bath county line, one year from January 1, 1891. All the magistrates were present and the vote stood 10 for to 6 against the extension.

Finger Shot Off.

Young Warford, son of Mr. Joel Warford, who lives on the Woodson place, near Big Eddy, was out hunting on Monday when his gun was accidentally discharged, tearing off one of his fingers. The wound was dressed by Dr. Samuel E. James and the young man is getting along as well as possible.

Steele Discharged.

Frank Steele, of Woodford county, who was arrested last week upon the charge of sending an obscene letter through the mails, had and examining trial Monday before Commissioner Ford, and was discharged from custody, the language used in the letter not being of such a character as to sustain the charge.

Going to Leave Us.

Rev. Father Lambert Young, who has had the pastoral care of the Church of the Good Shepherd, in this city, for the past twenty-three years, will resign his charge about the first of May and return to the home of his childhood in Holland. Father Young has made a host of friends in this city outside of his congregation who will regret to see him leave, and the members of his Church are exceedingly sad at the prospect of parting from him.

Christmas Egg.

A hen belonging to Mrs. Emma Bratton Martin, who lives near Switzer, this county, laid an egg on Christmas day which measured nine inches in circumference the long way and seven inches the small way. Thinking it was only a double yolk egg, though an unusually large one, Mr. Martin broke the end of the shell for the purpose of using the contents, when she discovered that another egg, with hard shell, was incased on the inside, the white of the outer egg forming a cushion for it. Mr. R. J. Martin brought the egg to town Wednesday and we had the pleasure of examining the great curiosity. He will have the inner egg blown and preserve both shells as a curiosity.

Pump War.

The old well in front of Dudley Institute on Second street was, upon petition of several citizens residing in the neighborhood, declared a nuisance by the City Council on Tuesday night, and ordered filled up. The petition stated that such noisy crowds assemble around the pump at night that the residents in the immediate vicinity are unable to sleep for the racket that is kept up. Wednesday morning an effort was made by the city authorities to take out the old pump, when an injunction was gotten out by Messrs. J. W. Gault, J. B. Utterback and others, restraining the city from further proceedings under the order of the Council. So the old pump still stands, and no earth has been thrown into the well.

Horace Greeley said "no west, young man"—but we suggest that every body who raises chickens get a bottle of Dr. Kelley's Chicken Cholera cure. If it fails your money will be refunded by Phil. Carpenter.

Council Proceedings.

ADJOURNED MEETING.

TUESDAY, Dec. 30, 1890.

Present—President Smith, Councilmen Buckley, Haly, Milam, Mangum, Tobin, Wakefield and Williams. Absent—Councilman Miles.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Petition of David Kirk, asking that a fine in the city court against him be remitted. Referred to police committee.

Petition of James Smith, asking that a fine against him in the police court be remitted. Referred to police committee.

Petition of Prof. Turner asking that the well in front of his house be closed up. Granted.

Councilman Milam moved that the finance committee be instructed to settle all outstanding debts of the city as far as was in their power to do so.

The finance committee reported favorably on the street railway bond, and it was accepted.

The committee on bridge reported the petition of the Water Company asking to be allowed the right to place an additional water pipe on the bridge without expression of opinion as to whether it shall pass.

The vote was afterward taken on the above petition and resulted, yeas, 3; nays, 5.

The committee on gas reported in favor of the election of posts on the South Side. Adopted.

The bids for building new pavements and repairing old ones were opened, and they were referred to the street committee to report at the next meeting of the council.

After the usual accounts were allowed, the council adjourned until next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Great Expectations.

Brother George Lewis, of the Richmond road, won a diamond pin on Sundays now, the worthily bestowed gift of the appreciative employees on Christmas day. Last year he got a gold mounted umbrella, and next year he expects to receive a carriage and a pair of horses. And here's hoping he may get them.

Deadly Wires.

Two horses were killed in Lexington this week by coming in contact with wires of the electric street railway which were broken down by the sleet. The rider of one of the horses was also badly injured by the electric shock received through the body of the horse.

Great Discoverers.

What Bell and Edison are to the telephone and electricity, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Dr. Franklin Miles, the well-known specialist in nervous diseases, is to the nervous system and nerve fluid. Among his numerous discoveries, the Restorative Nerveine is undoubtedly one of the greatest. It is unsurpassed in nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, epilepsy, neuralgia, backache, rheumatism, sleeplessness, change of life, etc. Free trial bottles of it may be had of J. W. Gayle, druggist. All should read his "New and Complete Manual of the Affected," a very able, interesting, and finely illustrated book. Free to all.

Mill Rhea.

In "Josephine, Empress of the French," Rhea's successful historical play, all interesting characters that figured in those stirring times between the divorce of Josephine and Napoleon Bonaparte and the former's death, are said to be very cleverly outlined by the author of the play, Albert Roland Haven. Napoleon is shown in all the strength of his imperious, domineering, ambitious manhood; Josephine in all the nobility of her patriotism and sympathetic and loyal womanhood. She is represented as loving Napoleon well, but France and the Empire more. Napoleon is shown as he was—a diplomatic schemer whose brain never seemed to weary of intrigue. The character of the valiant Murat is clearly set out, as are those of the white Fouché, the devoted son Eugene, the mischievous Pauline Bonaparte, the heartless second son, Marshal Louis of Austria and the good natured Duke of Dantzig.

At the Opera House Monday evening, January 5th

Gratifying to All.

Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste, and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

SLEEP IN PEACE

BY USING

PRATTS KILLER

FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others for the following reasons: It kills the eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season.

It kills the bugs instantly.

It effectually destroys their eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season.

It possesses advantages over insect powders inasmuch as it can be used in places where they cannot be reached.

Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to stain or discolor.

No fatal effects can result from its use, as it contains no poison, and it should be given a place in every household.

Sold in large bottles at 25 cents each.

Rev. Father Lambert Young entertained the choir of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Weitzel's dining parlor, with an elegant supper, on Tuesday evening.

Col. Moore's Father Dead.

Judge Joseph M. Moore, father of Col. Albert Moore, commandant of cadets at the Kentucky Military Institute, died at his home in New Orleans, on the 15th of December.

Died Suddenly.

Rev. Enos Campbell, who many years ago preached for the Christian Church in this city, died suddenly on Friday of last week at Middletown, Ohio. The remains were interred at Versailles on Tuesday.

Oh! ye who teach the ingenious youth of our great and growing nation, let them learn the noble art of self-defense, as Salvation Oil is the specific for hurt.

Two charming little girls were dancing "the ricket" in the streets. "What makes you so happy?" a gentleman asked. "Oh! our man has thrown away all our sorrows, and we have only to take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and that ain't bad at all."

Jett.

Old earth put on bridal robes of purest white in honor of the Savior's natal day.

Warm, wet and sloppy weather, very disagreeable to the expectant tobacco men, who have had but little weather suitable for stripping.

Among the holiday visitors are Miss Agnes Chenault and brother and Mr. Cable Chenault, of Madison county, Miss Mattie Daniels, of Shelby, Mr. Rector Crittenden, of Frankfort, Mrs. Ragan, of Louisville, Mr. P. L. Gibson, of Tyrone, the Hon. Jerry Stow, of Arkansas, and Miss Minnie Cowan, of Danville.

Invitations are out for a masquerade party at the residence of Mr. Duane Brown on the evening of the 2d of January. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are possessed of that peculiar type of hospitality which insures the enjoyment of their guests.

Mr. John R. Morris has a very sick child, Arthur, but we are glad to say he seems to be improving, and we hope the little fellow will soon be well.

Mrs. G. W. Robb, who has been regarded as a very precarious condition for some time, has so far recovered her health as to be regarded out of danger. The many friends of the family may tender their congratulations.

Notwithstanding the extreme stringency of the money market, our merchants and business men seem to be doing fairly well. Business stagnation seems to be something with which they are unacquainted.

Three of our hunters wound up the year by the slaughter of twenty-one rabbits in a single day. It is quite questionable whether the laws protecting these little pests should be enforced. Young orchards and ornamental trees are being seriously damaged by the little fellows.

We are told that even the oldest inhabitant can not remember when the crows appeared in such great numbers as they have this season. At times the whole face of the earth seems to be covered with them.

A Valuable Discovery.

Dr. Brown Squard's elixir of youth may be an important discovery, but every one knows that Dr. Franklin Miles' New Heart Cure certainly is. It has given thousands afflicted with a serious heart disease a new lease of life. Druggists who can observe its effects on many consumers, everywhere speak very highly of it. Mr. John Weaver, of Knightstown, Ind., says: "I have sold much of Dr. Miles' New Cure and have received many good reports." O. Monroe, of Danville, N. Y., reports large sales. "As the best part of it is every bottle has gained satisfaction." Sold and guaranteed by J. W. Gayle.

Rough on Dick.

An item in yesterday's Transcript referred to Capt. R. Ferguson, of Frankfort, as Chief of Police. The Captain called at this office yesterday to demand a retraction, saying he was Chief of the Fire Department, and not Chief of Police. The latter official, he said, was the ugliest man in Kentucky. Two young ladies who heard his remarks declared that Barnum should have the Chief of Police if he was any uglier than the Chief of the Fire Department. — Lexington Transcript.

Cheap Groceries.

J. C. Rogers has just completed a new store room on High street, near Clinton, and has moved into it a full line of family groceries, which he is selling cheaper than any body. As his place is very convenient for farmers, there is no reason for them to come down into the city for their groceries. Call and see him if you want low prices. He also has two rooms over his store for rent.

There is Only One.

There is only one Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and there is nothing like it. Do not be deceived by the numerous imitations, substitutes, frauds, etc., which are being pushed on the public by persons whose desire is to make money on the credulous. S. S. S. is a distinct medicine, is different from any other remedy. It must not be classed with the old worn out potash, mercury, sarsaparilla, thousand-doses-for-a-shilling articles, which are advertised, as it is not at all like them. It is S. S. S. cures by eliminating the poison from the blood by its action on the skin, and never fails to give relief and build up the health of the patient. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases will give much valuable information, and will be mailed free to applicants.

The Eminent Specialist, formerly Resident Physician of the Philadelphia General Hospital, Physician in charge of the Ohio Medical Institute, Cincinnati, Ohio, has for twenty five years successfully devoted his time to the treatment of his specialties. His treatment is based on the largest experience after thorough education preparation.

Rheumatism is essentially a disease of the nervous system, as all those investigations prove beyond a doubt. And upon this theory we have for years treated it with chemical remedies. The inflammation and acute affection resulting from rheumatic inflammations may all be avoided or cured by our treatment.

Bright's Disease of the Kidney is the result of faulty nutrition, over stimulation, or the use of improper remedies to increase the flow of urine.

Disease of the Digestive Organs are the most common of the more fatal diseases. Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Chronic Diarrhea, all result in important diseases, and must be treated. Early interference is the only remedy.

Young Men, who are rapidly approaching insanity and debility, will do well to consult us. These cases are not cured by the ordinary means, but by our special treatment.

Private Diseases, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Venereal Taint, Eruptions, Ulcers, Hemorrhoids and Stricture are promptly and effectively cured by our special treatment. We have spent thousands of dollars in time and money to cure these diseases.

Epilepsy or Fits. This phenomenon of the nervous system is the result of disease located in the brain centers. Our special treatment is calculated to remove the cause, and by the use of the most delicate and refined electrical apparatus, to remove the disease.

Patients consulting us should bring or send for six copies of their urine, which we will submit to a thorough microscopical examination and chemical analysis, a certificate and chart of which will be furnished the patient.

We invite all who have failed to obtain relief elsewhere to consult us. All curable cases are guaranteed.

Patients treated by mail and express. Where possible, personal consultation is preferable. List of conditions sent free on application.

All cases and correspondence strictly confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of the United States and Canada. Address with stamp for reply.

Married at the Pen.

Marriage ceremonies have been performed in a balloon, high up in the air, under ground in the Mammoth Cave, and other odd places, but one would hardly think of a couple selecting a prison as the place where they would be joined in marriage, and we were therefore surprised Tuesday morning, upon answering a call at our telephone, at being invited to attend a wedding at the Kentucky Penitentiary. We hastened to the spot, but the bridegroom delayed his coming until high noon. When the bells were ringing for the convicts to quit work for dinner the radiant young couple stood side by side in the Warden's office, in the presence of the officiating minister, Rev. H. H. Kavanaugh, prison chaplain, and Warden Bolan, Assistant Warden Marshall and a number of guards and other employees at the prison, and there, amid the strange and awe-inspiring scenes of bolts and bars, a few men wearing blue official uniforms and many the striped garb of felons in token of the power and majesty of the law, the solemn rites of the church were pronounced that fast locked the couple in the bonds of matrimony.

As soon as the congratulations were over and the blushing bride could compose herself, the groom proposed a bridal tour of the Penitentiary, and, in the care of two guards, they were conducted throughout that institution, and subsequently took their departure for their home.

The parties to the contract were John H. Southworth and Miss Annie E. Jones, of Scott county. The young lady, who is eighteen years of age, and quite rosy and good looking in features, is the daughter of Mr. A. H. Jones, a well-to-do farmer, of the same neighborhood. The groom, not quite twenty-one years, despite his very youthful appearance, furnished proof in outwitting the young lady's recalcitrant parent that he was less innocent than a lamb and a trifle more bold than he looked. Mr. Jones swore that the would-be groom should not have his daughter, but that same young man won to his aid the tender heart of his mother-in-law-elect and a friend in the neighborhood named James Rollins, and with these augmented forces, he boldly planned a midnight elopement.

At an agreed signal the mother arose from the bed where her husband lay sleeping and unlocked the door of the room in which Miss Annie had been imprisoned, gave her liberty and a mother's blessing.

Rollins, the mutual friend, met the young lady at the door and escorted her through the woods to the turnpike, where the groom was confined last winter with a severe attack of lumbago; but a thorough application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm enabled him to get up and go to work. Mr. Price says: "The remedy cannot be recommended too highly." Let any one troubled with rheumatism, neuralgia or lame back give it a trial and they will be of the same opinion. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 17-1m

HUBBARD, HUMPHRIES & CASSELL!

Pen Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Quire are visiting the family of Mr. Joe Tracy.

Mr. I. Graves preached at the school-house last Sunday, and will preach again on the second Sunday in January.

Mr. I. Graves and children are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tracy.

Miss Lucy Pierce entertained her young friends last Wednesday with a dinner party, candy-pulling and other festivities, with attachments, to celebrate her thirteenth birthday.

Pea Ridge school closed last week in a blaze of glory—speeches, nuts, fruit, candy, books, prizes, &c. This is the second session Mr. John Dooley has taught our school, and now our people are trying to induce him to teach a subscription school.

Three weeks ago the Farmers' Alliance was organized by Mr. Whitehouse, of Shelby county, and was addressed the next week by Mr. Bridgeford, of Frankfort, and others. Mr. Bridgeford's speech suited our people exactly, and he is cordially invited to come again, and all our people will gladly turn out to hear him. What Bud. Bridgeford said has been freely commented on here, and rumor has it that part of his speech gave offense. This is a pity, because it certainly was unintentional. The remark commented on was, in substance, "The county taxes citizens to construct turnpikes; the citizens tax themselves to assist the county, and when the pike is finished, the citizen finds a pole across the pike, at which he is compelled to pay toll for traveling a road he has already been twice taxed to construct, and the road really belongs to two or three men."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allison, of Flat Creek, are visiting Mr. Isham Pierce.

The Christmas tree at the school-house was a very nice tree for all. Two large trees loaded down with dolls, toys, candy and other rubbish, lighted by scores of candles and Chinese lanterns, made a sight well worth seeing. Space forbids a list of presents, or who got them, but some young men were made glad with a bottle of sardines, a corn dodger, and a slice of hoghead cheese.

Among visitors to the Christmas tree, we noticed Misses Anna Belle Crockett, May Sargent and Mrs. Ruth Sargent, of Bridgeport; Mrs. I. E. Graves, of Lexington; Messrs. Jack Hukill, of Benson; Willie Crockett, of Woodford; Joe Moore, George Graves, Mit. and Claude Sargent.

Rev. T. N. Arnold preached here every night, until the sleaz made travel dangerous. Our people always turn out to hear Brother Arnold, who, besides being a very able preacher, has a vein of dry humor that never fails to command attention.

Mr. Bailey and wife are visiting Mr. John Pierce.

Big dinner and dance at Mr. Billy Crutcher's New Year's day.

Mr. Walker Chambers and family, of Louisville, accompanied by Miss Daisy Dennis, are visiting Mr. John Dennis.

Miss Annie Collins and Miss Kate Ready visited Miss Bessie Wardford, of Big Eddy, last week.

History has recorded the fact that it is not very agreeable to have the U. S. for an enemy. Believing this the Kidge scribe cheerfully furnished all information, answered all questions of the census man in the counties of Franklin, Powell and Lee. Powell and Lee wrote it in their big books, and no complaint made; but Franklin county seems hard to please, for the papers were sent back from Washington a few weeks ago, because the number of eggs laid by scribbles hens did not tally with the capital count. The enumerator was told that it was mere guesswork about the number of eggs laid in a year, and that a hen was laying away the number of whose eggs were unknown. It is to be hoped that the friendship between U. S. and K. S. will not suffer for the forward doing of one hen on Pea Ridge.

Quite a number of Franklin county people, who were acquainted in Louisville twenty-five years ago, will remember the "haunted house" that stood near Twelfth and Main street. Stripped of embellishments, the story of the house was: A Federal officer, on his way to Nashville with money to pay the divisions under (Gens. Thomas (four-eyed George) and Meade, was enticed into this house, robbed, murdered and buried under the floor. Much indignation was expressed through the press at the time when the body, in the uniform of a Federal paymaster, was discovered, as it was said to be part of a deep laid secessh plot to rob Northern paymasters to pay the Rebel forces under Jackson and Lee. This story, with the blood curdling shrieks and groans heard in this house at midnight and a light seen occasionally, formed a very neat ghost story, so that the house stood empty for several years.

Our veteran school trustee, Capt. Will. Tracy, once lived in the "haunted house," but let him speak for himself.

"You see I heard the house was haunted, but bein' bound to have a house I rented it, after inquiryin' what regiment the ghost belonged to, and bein' told that it wasn't a Kentucky ghost but a Seventh Vermont, I got another feller to take half the house, candle matches, a couple of clubs and 'fixed for the haunts.' The other feller didn't come, so I had to stay in the house alone. Well, along about the middle of the night I waked up, and hearn the awfulest, confoundest racket I ever heard. I picked up a candle, put for the door and waked." But Capt. Tracy will gladly tell his midnight experience in the "haunted house" to any one interested.

Years ago a convict, dying in the Indiana State Prison, in the presence of his brother and the writer, said: "Time of the war I was drivin' a hack in Louisville, and one dark, cold, stormy night the Tarascon was late, and I was at the landing waiting for a passenger when a big, tall feller in a gum coat and blue uniform asked me if I wanted to make some more. In short, I agreed after some talk, to furnish a skiff, delivered to an address he would show me the next night, for $300. Well, I made all my arrangements, got a skiff for $25, and delivered it at Twelfth and Main. He paid me $100 down, yet I didn't like his looks, so I took a partner in with me, in case his 'Yankee Nibs' didn't act square; besides, taking along a knife and a couple of derringers. Well, we got the 'stiff' in the house and there stood his 'nibs,' dressed in citizen's clothes, while his uniform lay on the floor, which we soon dressed the stiff in. His 'nibs then helped us to take up the floor, where he had already dug a hole, and as we were burying it I concluded to ask for the money before doing any more. He said he'd pay when the work was done; that I had no right to take a partner or tell any one; that I had flown from my bargain, and he growled a good deal and finally said that he would give me $100, and the $200 in all, and no more. He then drew a pistol but my pard had him covered with two derringers, while I dragged the 'stiff' to the window to throw it out on to the sidewalk, for I would rather have got nothing than $200. Well, after some plavver he came to terms; said he'd pay the $300 after the 'stiff' was buried, so we told him, as it was now getting light, that he owed us $100 for bringing our night's rest, which he paid up all square. We then shook hands all round, and he left us and I divided the money between us.

"One week after my pard brought me a hard bill, saying that a Yankee paymaster was missing, and what was still more $7,500 was missing with him. The bill offered $1,000 for information, &c. Well, we were afraid to take hold but we got a lawyer who agreed to arrange matters, we to furnish what we knew and receive $500, he to do all business necessary for the other $500. That fellow was sharp as a tack. He arranged it all right, collected and divided square by our information. The body of the poor murdered paymaster was discovered, and being in the crowd we came very near being summoned on the coroner's jury. All the time he was talking he seemed to enjoy himself and treated the whole matter as a huge joke. Three days later he died and cleared up a greater mystery than the "haunted house."

If You had a Friend

About to visit some section of country where malarial disease, either in the form of chills and fever or bilious remittents was particularly rife, what would be about the best advice you could give him? We will tell you—to carry along, or procure on arriving, that potent medicinal safeguard, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, known throughout malarial plagued regions, here and in other countries, as the surest means of dispelling the miasmatic source, and robbing it of its fell destructive influence. Not only does it fortify the system by increasing its stamina, but overcomes irregularity of digestion, the liver and the bowels, and counteracts the unfavorable effects of over-exertion, bodily and mental exposure in rough weather, or occupation too sedentary or laborious, loss of appetite and general nervousness. The functions of alimentation, bilious retention and sleep have in it a most powerful and reliable auxiliary.
